Lok Sabha Poll-2024: Voting on Apr. 26

Public campaign to end tomorrow at 6 pm: DC

Mysuru, Apr. 23 (RK&BCT) As the Mysuru-Kodagu Lok Sabha Constituency gears up for voting on Apr. 26, the crucial phases of the election process are approaching. Tomorrow (6 pm) marks the end of the public campaign period, the beginning of the last 48-hour non-campaigning period.

The Mysuru District Administration, alongside the Police and allied departments, is fully prepared for the upcoming polling day. While candidates are granted the opportunity to make their final appeals to the electorate, the period of 'election silence' allows voters to reflect on their choices without campaign influence.

Deputy Commissioner Dr. K.V. Rajendra, who is also the District Electoral Officer, addressing the press meet in city this morning as (from left) ZP CEO and SVEEP Committee Chairperson K.M. Gayathri, City Police Commissioner B. Ramesh, SP Seema Latkar and ADC P. Shivaraju look on.

This morning, Deputy Commissioner Dr. K.V. Rajendra, serving as the District Electoral Officer (DEO), held a press conference at the new Deputy Commissioner's Office at Siddharthanagar on Bannur Road.

During the conference, Dr. Rajendra, flanked by City Police Commissioner Ramesh Banoth, SP Seema Latkar, ZP CEO K.M. Gayathri and Additional Deputy Commissioner (ADC) P. Shivaraju, outlined several measures aimed at ensuring a free and fair election in the district.

Comprehensive review

This update follows a comprehensive review of the entire electoral process, including mustering, voting, de-mustering, and preparations for storing the voting machines and associated paraphernalia, all of which were discussed alongside security measures initiated by the City and District Police.

Traffic jam at check-post amidst tightened vigil

Mysuru, Apr. 23 (AG&BCT)- A massive traffic jam extending up to one kilometre was observed this morning at the check-post established near the entry point of Mysuru, close to the Hootagalli Industrial Area.

The check-post's purpose was to ensure the rigorous enforcement of the election Model Code of Conduct.

Vehicles including school buses and other regular commuters travelling towards Mysuru and the Hootagalli Industrial Area found themselves stuck on this stretch for over 30 to 45 minutes. Even when the traffic did start to move, it progressed like a snail's crawl.

Many school students and passengers aboard KSRTC buses caught in the congestion resorted to sticking their heads out of windows in a bid to gauge when the traffic gridlock might be eased. The traffic jam, commencing at 8 am, only began to ease around 8.45 am.

With the Mysuru-Kodagu Constituency elections looming just 72 hours away, along with 14 other Constituencies in Karnataka, officials manning the check-posts have intensified their scrutiny. They aim to thwart the influx of cash, liquor, drugs and gold into Mysuru, intended for distribution among voters to sway their support towards a specific political party.

As part of this effort, every vehicle passing through is subject to meticulous inspection, with outstation vehicles particularly scrutinised. This entails thorough searches of luggage, bags and even seat compartments for any materials aimed at influencing voters.

Compounding the challenge is the meagre presence of only four to five personnel manning the check-post.

Additionally, the narrow road exacerbates the situation, with barricades strategically positioned to funnel vehicles in a specific direction, forcing them to come to a halt before reaching the inspection personnel.

Mysuru Zoo, Karanji Lake shut on Apr. 26 voting day

Mysuru, Apr. 23 (RK&KS)- As the State gears up for the first phase of Lok Sabha (LS) elections on Apr. 26 (Friday), Sri Chamarajendra Zoological Gardens (Mysuru Zoo) and Karanji Lake Nature Park in city will be closed.

To bolster urban voter turnout, it's noted that historically, many urban residents opt for short vacations coinciding with polling days, typically weekends. Closing tourist attractions aims to encourage citizens to prioritise their civic duty on election day.

However, both the Zoo and Karanji Lake Nature Park open on April 30 (Tuesday, a weekly holiday), welcoming tourists and visitors during the summer holidays, as stated in a press release by the Zoo Executive Director.

Meanwhile, authorities responsible for overseeing tourist destinations like Mysore Palace, Brindavan Gardens at the Krishna Raja Sagar (KRS) Dam, Ranganathittu Bird Sanctuary and similar sites are still in the process of finalising closure plans. Updates on this matter are anticipated later today.

Officials managing these tourist spots, including Mysore Palace and the KRS Dam, have indicated that no decision regarding closure has been made as of now. They stated that any decision on closure or remaining open will be made following consultations with district authorities and officers.

K-CET 'out of syllabus' Q papers

State Government forms four Committees

Bengaluru, Apr. 23 (KMS & DM)- As students and parents are in a state of bother over the lapses in the K-CET question papers,the State Government on Monday formed 4 Committees to review the charges that several questions were out of syllabus in the 4 Core subjects of Physics, Mathematics, Chemistry and Biology, which has been a cause of deep worry for the students.

The Karnataka Examination Authority (KEA) had conducted the CET-2024 on Apr.18 and 19 across the state for admission to professional courses(Engineering, Technology, Agriculture, Pharmacy, Horticulture etc.,) in colleges of Karnataka. The students and as well as Lecturers had claimed that about 25 percent of the Question papers in the Four core subjects were out of the prescribed syllabus.

Based on the claims, the Government, taking note of the future of students, has formed committees comprising of subject experts for each of the 4 subjects to find out whether the questions were out of syllabus. Each committee will have three members. The committees have been asked to submit their report within a week, following which the future course of action will be taken based on the reports.

Higher Education Department Principal Secretary M.S. Srikar said that the KEA has given time to CET students to file their objections regarding question papers by Apr. 27.

The KEA has also been asked to submit a detailed report on the matter, he added.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

In matters of climate change, global warming, species extinction and loss of green cover, no individual can hope to reverse the process or make a big difference. Even if we follow green practices in our daily lives, the large-scale destruction caused by industrial practices, businesses and government policies are beyond our control. Here, collective peoples' movements may help influence the trajectory in the very long term. In the meantime, the art of acceptance and adaptation can help us navigate the crises and survive.

Acceptance and adaptation require personal resolve, strength, patience and deep understanding. Arjun had to fight against his will for the larger good, to overcome negative forces and establish dharma. Similarly, we need to find ways to accept the fact that we have been remiss in nature conservation which is why we are experiencing its negative effects.

Acceptance does not mean we are shirking from the responsibility of speaking out or acting against eco-destruction. It means we accept the factors that led to the crises and while we find ways to adapt to the situation, we will also make efforts to create traction to change the way we have been treating our surroundings as exploitative human beings. Since not everything in life can be changed, we need to focus on those things that can be changed one step at a time, and for the rest, we need to adapt. The story of evolution is all about adaptation and species who learn to adapt, survive. Octopuses, for example, will use any debris they find, including glass and plastic, as items for shelter. Migratory fish move to colder and deeper waters to survive. Adaptation helps us discover new ways to survive. It inspires reflection and the gaining of inner strength to deal better with externalities.

Rare macaque stolen from German Zoo

Leipzig: A rare macaque has been stolen during a raid on a zoo in Germany. Leipzig Zoo said that the female lion-tailed macaque named Ruma was stolen from its cage during a "violent" overnight break-in. Police in Germany have launched an investigation.

"We do not know what motive is behind the theft, but we are extremely concerned about the welfare of the animal, whose proper care requires expert knowledge," the Zoo said in a statement.

Police in the German State of Saxony, where Leipzig is located, said the burglary took place overnight on Saturday, March 30. "On the night from Saturday to Sunday, unknown persons entered the grounds of the Leipzig Zoo and then forcibly opened the monkey's enclosure. They then stole a female monkey and fled the premises," Polizei Sachsen said in a statement.

This tiny island is giving away its goats

Alicudi: A tiny remote island off the coast of Sicily named Alicudi has started donating its 600 goats, with the animals overwhelming the human population of just 100.

Mayor Riccardo Gullo said that the goats were creating "tension" among the local community as they were wreaking havoc on the environment, storming people's homes and eating their crops.

Gullo said it all started with a few goats supposedly escaping from their owner and going on to reproduce themselves to a point where they have now become too hard to manage.

"They represented a problem, you would meet them everywhere. Six hundred goats have been counted - the island is really small, so they're really too many," he said.

Naguvanahalli Road causing hardship to motorists

Sir,

The entire stretch of Naguvanahalli Road (R.S. Naidunagar Main Road) from Shankar Nursing Home till the Ring Road Junction is in tatters.

This road is the main link for a vast number of residents commuting to Old Kesare. Many city buses ply on this road since the Naidu Nagar Bus Stand is located on the same stretch.

This road is also frequented by many School and College buses twice in a day to pick and drop students.

The Ring Road junction from Pushpashram is in a pathetic condition with potholes and craters. The motorists have to meander through the potholes facing a lot of hardship.

I do not understand the apathy of officials assigned by the MCC for this area. The term of Corporators having ended, they seem to be least bothered or they are in deep slumber, until the elections to the City Corporation are announced.

Will the MCC officials concerned wake up and do the needful please?

Mysuru, Apr. 23- A damaged open manhole in front of a house at Ashraya Housing Colony in Tanveer Sait Nagar at Rammanahalli is posing health hazards to the residents.

Mohammed Khalandar Sharif Javeed, a resident of the Colony, said that the manhole was damaged about two years ago and despite lodging complaints with Ashraya Committee and the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC), the officials have turned a blind eye towards the problem leaving the residents of the Housing Colony to suffer.

He said that stench emanating from the damaged manhole is unbearable and there is an increase in disease spreading mosquitoes and flies in the Colony which may cause outbreak of epidemic diseases.

The residents have urged the authorities concerned to take steps to replace the damaged manhole at the earliest.

St. Philomena's College commemorates World Earth Day with series of initiatives

Mysuru, Apr. 23- St. Philomena's College (Autonomous), Mysuru, celebrated World Earth Day on Apr. 22 with a series of initiatives aimed at raising awareness and promoting environmental conservation.

Under the guidance of Rev. Fr. Bernard Prakash Barnis, the Rector, the institution conducted day-long activities on the significance of protecting our planet.

The celebration commenced with an enlightening session by Dr. B. Shyla, Assistant Professor of PG Chemistry, who elucidated the importance of observing World Earth Day and the collective responsibility of safeguarding our environment for future generations.

Around 500 students took part in an awareness rally that traversed through the four primary junctions encircling the College premises in Bannimantap. Holding banners, the participants advocated for sustainable practices and urged the community to take proactive measures in conserving natural resources.

In a symbolic gesture of nurturing Mother Earth, Rector Rev. Fr. Bernard Prakash Barnis, College Principal Dr. Ravi J.D. Saldanha, Vice-Principal (Academic) Nagaraj Urs and Vice-Principal (Administration) Ronald Prakash Cutinha joined hands to plant rare saplings around the campus.

As part of their commitment to maintaining a clean and pristine environment, students and staff undertook a comprehensive campus cleaning drive. Reflecting on the day's events, A. Thomas Gunaseelan, IQAC Coordinator and Jeevitha Saldanha, Green Cell Coordinator said, "The celebration embodies the spirit of collective action and underscores the urgent need for concerted efforts to address environmental challenges."

Decision on release of drought relief for Karnataka imminent: Centre tells SC

New Delhi, Apr. 23- The Centre on Monday assured the Supreme Court (SC) that the Karnataka Government's demand with regard to the release of drought relief fund would be dealt with expeditiously after having received green signal for it from the EC.

At the outset of the hearing on Karnataka Government's plea against the Centre for not releasing funds, Attorney General R. Venkataramani told the SC Bench comprising Justices B.R. Gavai and Sandeep Mehta that something would happen soon

Pointing out that the Model Code of Conduct for the LS polls is in force, Venkataramani said, the Centre had approached the Election Commission, which allowed it to take a decision.

The Court while observing that "It has to happen amicably, given that this is a federal structure," deferred the hearing to Apr. 29. "Resolve this amicably. We have a federal structure, where both the Union and the States are equal partners", Justices B.R. Gavai and Sandeep Mehta said.

On Apr. 8, the Court had questioned the Centre about the steady stream of States moving the Court against the Union Government. The Court had then asked why the Union Government had sought to enter into a 'contest' with water starved Karnataka over its request for drought relief.

In its petition, Karnataka said that it's request for financial relief from the Centre to tide over a 'grave humanitarian crisis' has hit a wall. The State had sought Rs. 18,171.44 crore under National Disaster Response Fund (NDRF) six months ago, only to be met with silence. The total estimated loss due to crop damage in the State is Rs. 35,162.05 crore, the petition said.

High Court upholds hookah ban

Bengaluru, Apr. 23 - In a significant ruling, the Karnataka High Court has upheld the State Government's notification banning the sale, consumption, storage, advertisement and promotion of all types of hookah products across the State. Dismissing a batch of petitions challenging the ban on sale of hookah products in Karnataka, the High Court has held that the action of the State Government is in strict consonance with Article 47 of the Constitution of India, apart from being completely tenable in law.

Justice M. Nagaprasanna pointed out that as per the study of the New York Poison Control Centre, hookah smoking can cause carbon monoxide poisoning and chemicals like burning charcoal used in the process can cause heart attack, decreased lung function, respiratory symptoms, cancer and premature death. Additionally, the consumption of hookah in establishments such as hotels, bars and restaurants poses risks to food safety and public health, further justifying the ban.

Advocate General K. Shashi Kiran Shetty emphasised the ban was issued in the public interest and is supported by relevant legislation, including the Cigarette and Tobacco Products Act (COTPA) 2003, Child Care and Protection Act 2015, Food Safety and Quality Act 2006, Karnataka Poisons (Possession and Sale) Rules 2015, Indian Penal Code, and Fire Control and Fire Protection Act.

The Advocate General argued that the absence of designated areas for serving hookah in establishments raises concerns, as full-service Hookah bars operate without proper regulation.

Justice Nagaprasanna said, the defence for hookah is that it is less harmful than cigarettes but studies suggest that it exposes users to nicotine, an addictive chemical. The Justice observed that herbal hookah which the petitioners claim to be selling is a storehouse of carbon monoxide. "It is averred there are about 800 hookah places/ bars in Karnataka," the Judge said, wondering why the State had kept quiet this long to allow them to proliferate.

The petitioners argued that it infringes upon Article 14, which guarantees equality before the law, as well as Article 19(1)(g), which protects the right to carry out business activities. Despite these arguments, the High Court maintained the ban on hookah products, ruling against the petitions challenging its validity.

Lok Sabha Poll - 2024: Election irregularities

Record seizures of cash, liquor, gold, freebies worth Rs. 406.73 crore this year

Mysuru, Apr. 23 (SBD&KS)- In a bid to prevent election irregularities, record seizures have taken place across the State this year.

In various operations by election officers, the officials have seized cash, liquor, gold ornaments, free gifts and other items worth Rs. 406.73 crore, thus creating a new record.

In the 2023 Vidhana Sabha elections, cash and other items worth Rs. 384 crore were seized and in the 2019 Lok Sabha elections, a total of Rs. 88 crore cash and other items were seized.

But before the first phase of Lok Sabha elections can take place on Apr. 26, cash and other items worth over Rs. 406 crore have been seized.

Rs. 5 lakh seized near Gungral Chatra

Mysuru, Apr. 23 (RK&KS)- The Flying Surveillance Team (FST) has seized Rs. 5 lakh cash near Gungral Chatra village in Chamundeshwari Constituency which was being transported in a car without valid documents in the wee hours of yesterday.

At about 2.20 am yesterday, the FST stopped a car coming from K.R. Nagar side towards Mysuru and the FST members Umesh and others, who checked the car, found Rs. 5 lakh cash inside and seized the cash from car occupant Mansoor Shariff after he failed to produce valid documents.

Following instructions from Assistant Election Officer Nandeesh and Tahsildar Mahesh Kumar, seizing team Nodal Officer Vishwanath, Guruchethan, Satish Pal and Mahesh handed over the seized cash to the officers at the District Treasury.

Public response to me beyond expectations: M. Lakshmana

The staunch support of Chief Minister Siddaramaiah for Congress candidate M. Lakshmana in the Mysuru-Kodagu Constituency — also Siddaramaiah's home turf — has transformed the contest into an intriguing battle. Here, the former finds himself in a heated race against BJP's candidate Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar, the scion of the erstwhile Mysore royal family.

Despite both Yaduveer and Lakshmana being political newcomers, it is noteworthy that the 59-year-old engineer-turned-politician Lakshmana is leveraging the CM's popularity and the traditional Congress voter base.

Presenting himself as a contender in Vokkaliga-dominated Constituency, Lakshmana has made this seat a matter of prestige for Siddaramaiah where Congress is keen on presenting the Constituency as a gift to Siddaramaiah. Star of Mysore spoke to Lakshmana to delve into his vision and unique characteristics of the Constituency. Excerpts...

Star of Mysore (SOM): How did you secure the Congress ticket?

M. Lakshmana: I've been a dedicated Congress party worker for years. As the party spokesperson, I've targeted Opposition parties and leaders while staunchly defending Congress leaders. In any election, there are many aspirants within a party. I was one of 20 aspirants and the party short-listed me along with District Congress President Dr. B.J. Vijaykumar. Finally, the Congress High Command selected me.

SOM: How has the public responded to your campaign?

Lakshmana: The public response has exceeded my initial expectations. Overall, I can confidently say that Congress has a strong chance of winning the seat.

SOM: Were you prepared to face BJP MP Prathap Simha, whom you had consistently criticised?

Lakshmana: Yes, I was preparing to contest against Prathap Simha and defeat him. But I never personally opposed him. My criticism has always been directed at his actions and political ideologies. I challenged the MP when he claimed sole credit for bringing projects to the Constituency.

Despite this, Simha remains a friend of mine. While I have criticised him, I have never insulted him or launched personal attacks. I anticipated facing Simha as he was the sitting BJP MP. However, the BJP denied the ticket to Simha.

SOM: What impact will guarantees have?

Lakshmana: The Congress unveiled five pre-poll guarantees before last year's Assembly polls, which greatly influenced the election outcome in our favour. These guarantees will have a similar impact on the LS polls.

SOM: You haven't previously publicised your caste, but now you are flaunting it everywhere, especially with the 'Gowda' after your name.

Lakshmana: I didn't create a situation where I had to showcase my caste identity. The sitting BJP MP, Prathap Simha, frustrated at missing the ticket, began accusing me of not being a genuine Vokkaliga and playing the caste card for votes. I've never resorted to using my caste for political gain. I am the son of Muddulingaiah from Kuluvanahalli along the National Highway in Nelamangala taluk. Simha can visit there to verify my caste. I've clarified the accusations made by the MP. Perhaps Simha forgot how he arrived at the RSS Office 'Madhava Krupa' in an autorickshaw after being announced as the BJP candidate for the Mysuru-Kodagu LS seat in 2014. I won't dwell on him as he's no longer in the race.

SOM: The caste factor could be significant.

Lakshmana: I didn't seek the Congress ticket based on caste, nor will I seek votes along those lines. My appeal to voters is for a secular and people-friendly candidate. I am confident in the people's support. Simultaneously, I'm asking voters whether they prefer a Royal family member as their MP or a common man like me who is accessible to them.

SOM: There is a notion that this election is more about Siddaramaiah's prestige than your candidacy.

Lakshmana: Yes, I acknowledge that this election holds significant importance for Siddaramaiah and as a leader from this region and the CM, it is indeed a matter of prestige. That is why, the party workers and leaders are actively involved in the campaign, working hard for victory.

SOM: There are reports that the results will impact CM's leadership.

SOM: Are you concerned that traditional Congress votes might shift to Yaduveer?

> "I've faced defeat in four elections: The 2008 Assembly polls, South Graduates Constituency polls in 2010 and 2012, and also in 2018 from the South Teachers Constituency. Each time, I lost by a small margin, which has been quite disheartening."

Lakshmana: The country has seen the outcomes of electing members from royal families. Voters are no longer swayed by sentiments; they don't want to be misled.

SOM: You mentioned that losing is like death to you. Can you elaborate?

Lakshmana: I've faced defeat in four elections: The 2008 Assembly polls, the South Graduates Constituency polls in 2010 and 2012, and in 2018 from the South Teachers Constituency. Each time, I lost by a small margin, which has been quite disheartening. My statement about 'losing is like death' stems from the frustration and disappointment of these past electoral setbacks.

SOM: Besides development, what plans do you have for the welfare of the poor, farmers and youth?

Lakshmana: As an MP, I don't have direct access to exclusive funds for projects. However, I will use my position to highlight and address the issues and grievances of the people. I have a specific vision and mission for Mysuru and I will make sincere and continuous efforts towards it. I aim to work in perfect coordination with party workers and authorities alike.

SOM: Do you have a political role model or mentor?

Lakshmana: I have several role models, rather than specific godfathers. My role models include CM Siddaramaiah, Dy.CM D.K. Shivakumar, AICC President Mallikarjun Kharge, and senior Congress leaders Sonia Gandhi and Rahul Gandhi. I have a particular admiration for Siddaramaiah, which transcends politics.

SOM: What message do you have for the electorate regarding the importance of voting?

Lakshmana: I strongly urge everyone to exercise their right to vote without fail. Voting is a fundamental right for all citizens. Authorities are striving for an 80 percent voter turnout and every voter must participate responsibly. Let's fulfil our duty as responsible citizens.

Will preserve natural beauty of Mysuru-Kodagu: Yaduveer

Of the 28 Lok Sabha Constituencies in Karnataka, Mysuru-Kodagu holds significant prestige within the old Mysore region. Its prominence was further elevated with Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar, the titular king of the erstwhile Mysore royal family, making his electoral debut.

He is contesting as the BJP-JD(S) alliance candidate under the banner of the National Democratic Alliance (NDA).

Yaduveer's candidacy has garnered nationwide attention, with his dedicated efforts aimed at securing victory. Amid his hectic campaign schedule, Yaduveer took some time to share his thoughts on the 2024 General Elections and his candidature with Star of Mysore. Here are the excerpts.

Yaduveer: The response has been overwhelmingly positive. It's heartening to see people greeting me with such enthusiasm. There's a collective determination among leaders, party workers and the public to re-elect Narendra Modi as the Prime Minister.

Additionally, there's a deep emotional connection between the people and the Palace, remembering the contributions of our ancestors during the princely rule.

SOM: What was your reaction when your name was announced as a BJP candidate? Did you anticipate it?

Yaduveer: With several aspirants vying for the ticket, including myself, I remained hopeful and mentally prepared for the decision to be in my favour.

SOM: What drew you to politics?

Yaduveer: My interest in politics grew, particularly after the adoption ceremony into the erstwhile Mysore royal family. However, I wasn't initially serious about it. It was only in the past year that I began contemplating a serious involvement in politics. Power is pivotal for implementing large-scale social initiatives and achieving this often requires election as a people's representative, enabling one to enact reforms within the established legal framework.

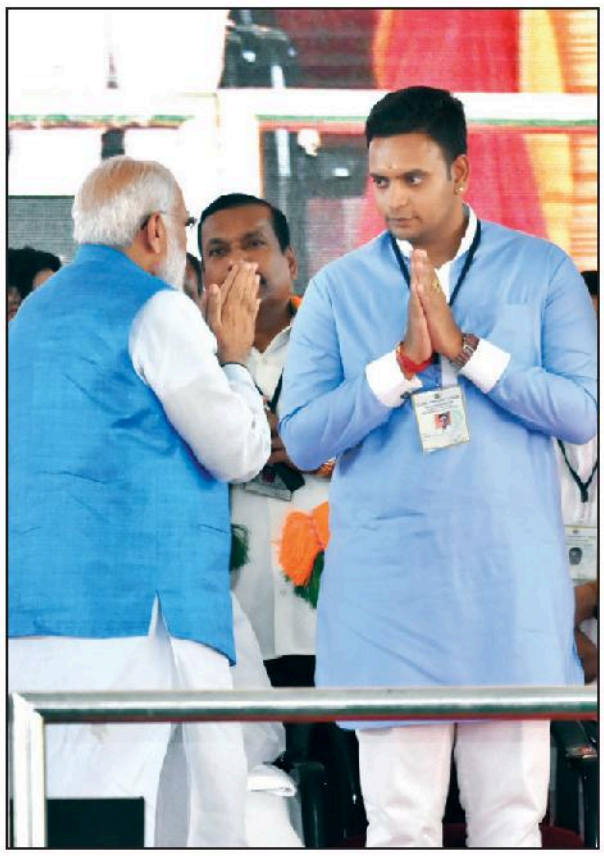
SOM: Your father, Srikantadatta Narasimharaja Wadiyar, was elected to Parliament from the Congress in the Mysuru Constituency (later Mysuru-Kodagu) four times. Did the Congress extend an invitation for you to join the party?

Yaduveer: At the Palace, we maintain cordial relations with all political parties and leaders, especially concerning matters related to the Palace. While some Congress leaders extended personal invitations, I prefer not to elaborate further on this topic.

SOM: Despite being educated in Bengaluru and abroad, you often emphasise your bond with Mysuru from childhood. What plans did you have for Mysuru?

Yaduveer: My desire has always been to contribute to preserving Mysuru's rich heritage. Now, with the opportunity to work at a larger scale, there's a chance to realise this vision, especially with PM Modi's proposal for a Heritage Corridor connecting Mysuru, Hampi and Badami. We can act as a catalyst in making this ambitious project a reality.

> "Prime Minister Narendra Modi's vision of 'Viksit Bharat' and the ongoing developmental initiatives by our current Mysuru-Kodagu MP Prathap Simha align with the aspirations of the people. Their contributions, alongside those of past leaders from various parties, have left a lasting impact on our region and I trust they will positively influence this election as well."



SOM: Before your candidacy announcement, meeting you was quite challenging. How do you feel about the sudden change, being among the people, receiving felicitations and engaging in sloganeering?

Yaduveer: While some have criticised the perceived inaccessibility of those associated with the Palace, we have always prioritised meeting with people who visit us. Now, I'm delighted to be amidst the public, experiencing their affection and warmth first-hand.

SOM: If elected as an MP, what vision do you have for the future of Mysuru?

Yaduveer: It's our responsibility to uphold the rich traditions of Mysuru and Kodagu, as expected by the people. Preserving our heritage, both tangible and intangible, is paramount. The PM has echoed many of my thoughts on this matter, emphasising the importance of protecting monuments and traditions.

SOM: Mysore Palace and Chamundi Hill share a deep historical connection, yet urbanisation seems to encroach upon their surroundings. What is your stance on this issue?

Yaduveer: When it comes to the development around Chamundi Hill, we must respect its religious significance and ensure that any projects are carried out with due reverence. We should prioritise environmental preservation, public health and adopt an organic approach in any developmental endeavours.

SOM: The sitting MP has mentioned the possibility of bringing Metro Rail to Mysuru. How do you view this proposal, along with Peripheral Ring Road project?

Yaduveer: Before embarking on any major projects like the Metro Rail or Peripheral Ring Road, it's crucial to conduct thorough feasibility studies. If elected, I'll ensure that these projects are evaluated meticulously, with a focus on completing ongoing developments efficiently.

Additionally, I'll prioritise new initiatives as per the needs of the constituency and ensure they align with our cultural and environmental values.

SOM: What are your plans to rejuvenate industrial growth in the Mysuru region?

Yaduveer: Revitalising industrial growth in Mysuru is imperative for economic stability. We need to attract more industries, especially in sectors like information technology, to bolster Mysuru's position as a complement to Bengaluru. However, development must be balanced with preserving our cultural and environmental heritage, which are key attractions for both locals and tourists.

Road Show by BJP candidate in NR Assembly segment

Mysuru, Apr. 23 (BLU&DM)- With just a day to go for the public campaigning to end for the Lok Sabha polls on Apr.26, Mysuru-Kodagu LS seat BJP candidate Yaduveer Wadiyar held a brisk poll campaign in several parts of N.R. Assembly segment of the city this morning.

Yaduveer began his campaign for the day by offering prayers at Chamundeshwari temple in Gayathripuram, following which he took out a road show in the locality, during which he was given a rousing reception by the residents. Thereafter, he visited Soligara Beedi, Ambedkar Colony in Kyatamaranahalli, Raghavendranagar, Giriyabovipalya, Siddarthanagar, Vidyanagar, Triveni Circle, RMS Layout, Shaktinagar, Teachers Colony, Papanna Layout and Yeraganahalli.

During his visit to slums, he mingled with children. As he continued with his campaign, many people were seen vying with each other to take selfies with him.

Former Mayor Sandesh Swamy, former Corporator Satwik and other BJP leaders accompanied the candidate.

Public campaign to end

"We are coordinating with Flying Squad Teams (FSTs) and the Static Surveillance Teams (SSTs) to ensure compliance with the rules laid down by the Election Commission (EC) during the last 72 hours. The FSTs and the SSTs along with other election officials would keep a strict vigil on community halls, restaurants, public parks and areas around the offices of political parties," the DC said.

Under Section 126 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, the election campaign halts during the 'silent period' that lasts for 48 hours ending with the conclusion of the poll.

Ban orders will be enforced from 6 pm on Apr. 24 till midnight on Apr. 26, under Section 144 of the CrPC, 1973, prohibiting unlawful assemblies, public meetings, and the use of loudspeakers, and limiting gatherings to no more than five persons.

Door-to-door campaigning is still permitted. Political functionaries and party workers who are not voters of the constituency are expected to leave once campaigning ends, the DC added.

This period also sees 'area domination' activities by the commandos, city and district armed police and KSRP. There will be a restriction on opinion polls, and political advertisements through electronic and social media, and the enforcement of a ban on the sale of liquor, Dr. Rajendra said.

Visit to strong room

DC Dr. Rajendra and City Police Commissioner Ramesh Banoth visited the strong room established at Maharani's Women's Commerce and Management College in Paduvarahalli (Vinayakanagar), Mysuru last evening.

Their purpose was to conduct an inspection and offer suggestions to officials regarding security measures for safeguarding the voting machines to be stored in the strong room. During the inspection, various facilities and amenities crucial for the electoral process were meticulously examined.

These included the ground floor and the first floors, which house essential components such as counting centres, EVM storage halls, VVPAT storage halls, rooms designated for observers, media accommodations, CCTV surveillance systems, robust security measures, uninterrupted electricity supply, provisions for ambulance services, restroom facilities, drinking water availability, and adequate barricading to ensure smooth proceedings on the polling day.

'Efforts to conserve heritage buildings will be on'

SOM: Heritage monuments are in a precarious state, lacking serious conservation efforts. Do you have plans to address this issue urgently?

Yaduveer: I've been actively involved in efforts to conserve heritage structures like Devaraja Market and Lansdowne Building. Collaborating with heritage experts, I've participated in protests and discussions to understand the ground reality. Moving forward, we'll continue these efforts, underlining pragmatic solutions and raising awareness among the public about the importance of preserving our heritage.

SOM: Education is a key area of focus for you. What are your thoughts on establishing premier institutes like IISc, IIM, IIT and medical institutions in Mysuru?

Yaduveer: Before initiating any such development, feasibility studies are crucial. We must prioritise projects based on their necessity rather than simply adding them to a list. Our decisions should always consider the interests and needs of the people in our region.

SOM: How do you plan to empower the youth, making them valuable assets to the nation?

Yaduveer: My focus is on fostering an environment where youth are not just job seekers but also job creators. This involves not only nurturing talent but also retaining it. Many talented individuals leave for cities like Bengaluru, Chennai and Mangaluru for opportunities. We need to develop industries and the IT sector in Mysuru to provide ample opportunities locally.

SOM: Are there any leaders whose qualities you admire and seek to emulate?

Yaduveer: I deeply respect PM Modi for his leadership and tireless work ethic. I also admire former CM S.M. Krishna for his patience, tolerance towards criticism and his inclusive approach in public life. There's much to learn from leaders like them and I aim to incorporate their qualities into my own approach.

SOM: How do you foresee this election impacting the relationship between the Palace and the people amidst ongoing legal disputes?

Yaduveer: The enduring bond between the Palace and the people remains unaltered, rooted in tradition and shared history. If elected, I will honour the legal framework while serving within defined boundaries. Legal disputes are governed by judgments and will naturally take their course.

SOM: Beyond reverence for the royal family, why should the people rally behind your candidacy?

Yaduveer: My commitment to serving the people of Mysuru is driven by a deep emotional connection. I see this as an opportunity to contribute meaningfully to our society and I humbly seek the support of the people in this endeavour.

SOM: Do you believe the 10-year tenure of PM Modi and the developmental efforts of Prathap Simha as MP will influence your campaign?

Yaduveer: Both PM Modi's vision of 'Viksit Bharat' and the ongoing developmental initiatives by our current MP align with the aspirations of the people. Their contributions, alongside those of past leaders from various parties, have left a lasting impact on our region and I trust they will positively influence this election as well.

We must prioritise projects based on their necessity rather than simply adding them to a list. Our decisions should always consider the interests and needs of the people in our region.

SOM: Is the BJP optimistic about securing a third consecutive victory here?

Yaduveer: We have confidence in our efforts and the support of the people. The pulse of the electorate will ultimately determine the outcome and we remain hopeful of a positive result.

SOM: How do you perceive the potential challenge from the Congress candidate?

Yaduveer: Each candidate brings their own strategies to the table. However, my focus is solely on connecting with the people and presenting my plans for the Constituency. I believe in earning the support and blessings of the electorate through transparent and dedicated efforts.

SOM: How do you maintain such patience in dealing with various issues?

Yaduveer: Patience is a virtue ingrained in the ethos of our heritage, passed down through generations of Mysureans and Kannadigas. It's a quality we all should strive to uphold for our collective well-being.

SOM: Are you content with the support from leaders and workers of the BJP-JD(S) alliance?

Yaduveer: The coordination between the BJP and JD(S) has been exemplary, with leaders from both parties working together seamlessly. I'm grateful for their support and unity.

SOM: What are your plans for environmental conservation and the beautification of lakes in Mysuru?

Yaduveer: Environmental conservation and lake beautification have been focal points of my efforts. If entrusted with a greater role, I will continue to prioritise these initiatives, working diligently for the preservation of our natural heritage.

SOM: How does the BJP's 'Sankalp Patra' plan to counter Congress' guarantees?

Yaduveer: When it comes to national interests, people are increasingly vigilant, carefully considering matters of security, tradition and culture. The faith that all Indians will vote in the best interest of the nation has strengthened.

SOM: What's your projection for the number of LS seats NDA will secure in the State?

Yaduveer: We (NDA) are confident of securing all 28 LS seats.

SOM: Are recent unfortunate incidents being politicised?

Yaduveer: Whenever such incidents occur, it's natural for people to express their anger through protests and movements. We peacefully seek justice, having faith in the legal and judicial systems. During elections, such incidents often take on political dimensions. Our only demand is swift justice for the victims.

SOM: What qualities do you believe are essential for a public representative?

Yaduveer: Patience, tolerance and a commitment to serving above and beyond the expectations of the people with honesty. —SBD

Classical Vocal Concert by Vidu. Krithika Srinivasan

Vidu. Krithika

Vid. Amogh

Vidu. Deepika

Vid. Ajay

Mysuru, Apr. 23- Sri Thyagaraja Sangeetha Sabha Charitable Trust has organised a vocal concert by Vidu. Krithika Srinivasan from Bengaluru, at 6 pm on Apr. 26 at Sri Rama Mandira, Jayanagar, in city on account of Ramanavami Music Festival.

She will be accompanied by Vid. N. Amogh on violin, Vidu. Deepika Srinivasan on mridanga and Vid. T.N. Ajay on ghata.

Artiste's Profile

Vidu. Krithika Srinivasan is a multi-talented personality — a BE graduate, a Karnatak musician, a writer, a music educator and a Special Projects Executive at the Indian Music Experience Museum, Bengaluru (India's first interactive music museum).

She is undergoing advanced training under Vid. Chitraveena N. Ravikiran and Vid. Anoor Ananthakrishna Sharma. She was also trained under Vidu. T.S. Vasanthamadhavi.

Vidu. Krithika Srinivasan is a graded artiste of All India Radio (AIR) and has given many concerts and thematic presentations in prestigious platforms across Karnataka and in a few places abroad.

She has also written a few books on classical music, which have been brought as audio books by her and is also actively involved in the making of Encyclopaedic Tripartite Literary Musical Project etc.

Chitraveena Vidwan Ravikiran to perform at Mysore Vasudevacharya's house

Mysuru, Apr. 23- Renowned artiste Vid. N. Ravikiran will be visiting the heritage house of Mysore Sri Vasudevacharya in the city on Apr. 26 in order to pay his tributes to the great soul.

On the occasion, he will be presenting a small Chitraveena concert, accompanied by Vid. Dhruv S. Pathangi on vocal, Vidu. Gayatri Sivani on violin, Vid. Mysore A. Radhesh on mridanga and Vid. Raghunandan Rao on ghata. The concert, beginning at 10.30 am is open to all music lovers.

Profiles

Vid. Ravikiran is among the most illustrious musicians of our times. Considered a child prodigy for being able to recognise hundreds of Ragas and Talas at an age less than three, Ravikiran started giving concerts at five. He has been an eminent vocalist, an unparalleled Chitraveena player, a much sought-after teacher and a composer par excellence. The Wisconsin State Journal, USA, called him 'The Mozart of Indian Music.'

Vid. N. Ravikiran

Ravikiran has given thousands of concerts across the globe in major international festivals and venues and has collaborated with leading artistes and orchestras including members of the BBC Philharmonic, Wisconsin Chamber Orchestra, Apollo Chamber Players, Glen Velez, Taj Mahal and L. Shankar, to name a few.

The greatest of his achievements lies in the fact that, in spite of all these collaborations, he has remained a purist, upholding the classical traditions of Karnatak music and always enhancing its "gamaka" based style of rendition.

Vid. Dhruv S. Patangi, a senior disciple of Vid. Ravikiran, is an established vocalist having been performing solo concerts and vocal duets along with his brother Vid. Datre and supporting Vid. Ravikiran in many of his creative presentations and albums.

Vidu. Gayatri Sivani is a young violinist, having learnt under Vid. Ganduri Srinivasa Murthy and Vidu. Narmada Gopalakrishnan. She is now under Dr. M. Chandrasekharan. At 20, she has already accompanied many of the top grade artistes in prestigious Sabhas.

Both Vid. Radhesh and Vid. Raghunandan Rao are well-established percussionists from Mysuru, having stage experiences of over two decades.

Popular compositions come to life again on Kanyakumari's violin

On the fourth day of the music series of Ramabhyudaya Sabha, Srirampet, senior violinist Vidu. Kanyakumari gave a violin concert with her student Dr. Nishanth Chandra on violin accompaniment, Vid. Sai Giridhar on mridanga and Vid. Vyasa Vittala on kanjira.

Kanyakumari has been playing violin for more than half a century now. She was the favourite accompanist for the legendary MLV and even as a child I remember attending MLV's concerts with her accompaniment. But what is amazing is the same zeal and strength with which she plays the instrument for hours together even at the age of 72 years. Her fingers move with the same speed and clarity as it used to fifty years ago!

Kanyakumari had chosen a number of popular compositions for the evening. Except the first composition of Papanashanam Shivan 'Sri Ganesha' in Tilang, all the other compositions that followed were well-known compositions. 'RAmabhakthi sAmrAjya' in shuddha Bangala by Tyagaraja was buoyant. She intelligently used the technique of playing a series of short ragalapanas prior to presenting Swati Tirunal's BhAvayAmi RaghurAmam' in the same order of the ragas as they occur in the composition, which was impressive.

After a short preamble of Kamas, she asks the audience whether they want SeetApatE' or "BrochevarevarurA' and the audience opted for 'BrOchEvArevarurA' by Mysore Vasudevachar. For swarakalpana she chose a unique place - the first line of the chitteswara and here she made use of MLV's technique of playing second speed swaras to the first speed of the sahitya chosen and vice-versa, which was unique.

Kanyakumari was interactive with the audience throughout the concert and so there was no dull moment anywhere. For example, On playing a short ragalapana of Dhenuka, she extracted the name of the raga from the listeners before playing the Tyagaraja composition 'Teliya leru RAma BHakthimArgamunu' (Aditala). The composition that followed was the most popular one for instrumentalists-'Raghuvamsha sudhAmbudhi chandra' by Patnam Subramanya Iyer. A short ragalapana of Chandrajyothi of course led to Tyagaraja's 'BAgAyanayya'.The main raga of the evening was Kharaharapriya which brought another popular composition of Tyagaraja 'Chakkani rAjamArgamu yundaga'.

Vidu. Kanyakumari

Prior to the composition, Kanyakumari also played tanam, which she allowed her favourite disciple Nishanth to share. The clarity with which the senior artiste played the tanam even at the top speed was unbelievable. Swarakalpana was in ragamalika in ragas Revati, Hindola, Valachi and Shahana also played by Nishanth and Kanyakumari played the round-up swaras in all these ragas in the reverse order, which was a tip-of-the-finger play for her. Taniyavartanam was great with Sai Giridhar and Vyasa Vittala and won immense appreciation from the listeners.

After the taniyavartanam, the artiste played half a dozen compositions — 'Pibare RAmarasam rasane' by Sadashiva Brahmendra, 'Meera Bajan 'pAyOji maine Ram Ratan' , 'Si RAmachandra kripALu' bhajan by Tulsidas, 'Seetamma mAyamma' by Tyagaraja on request, 'Govinda Hari Govinda' in accelerating speed and Purandaradasaru's 'Venkatachala nilayam' in Sindhubhairavi.

Vidu. Kanyakumari giving a violin concert at Smt. Alammana Choultry in Srirampet on Apr. 20 as part of 134th Sri Ramothsava Sangeethothsava organised by Sri Ramabhyudhaya Sabha Public Charitable Trust, Mysuru. She is accompanied by Vid. Sai Giridhar on mridanga, Dr. Nishanth Chandra on violin and Vid. Vyasa Vittala on kanjira.

Brisk campaigning by Lakshmana

Mysuru, Apr. 23 (MTY&DM)- Upping the ante with just a day to go for public campaigning to conclude, Mysuru-Kodagu LS Constituency Congress candidate M. Lakshmana undertook brisk campaigning at several areas coming under NR Assembly segment this morning by holding road shows standing atop an open vehicle.

Lakshmana began his campaign from Gayathripuram Junction bus stop, from where he travelled to MCC Colony. He later campaigned near Maramma Temple on Yeraganahalli Road, followed by Dr. Rajkumar Road, Bhagyalakshmi stores Road, Chamundeshwari Temple on Vidyanagar Road, Kaveri Road in Vidyanagar, Huliyamma temple Road in Kyathamaranahalli, Tent Circle, K.N. Pura, Azeez Sait Nagar, Al-Badr Circle among others.

Highlighting the achievements of the Congress Government, Lakshmana appealed the electorate to vote for him and thus strengthen the Congress. He also distributed the party's LS polls guarantee cards among the public during the campaign.

BJP opens account in LS polls with Surat seat

Mukesh Dalal

Ahmedabad, Apr. 23- Even before the second phase of voting in the 7-phase Lok Sabha elections across the country is to be held on Apr. 26, the BJP has opened its account in the LS polls by bagging the Surat seat in Gujarat,with the party candidate Mukesh Dalal being declared elected unopposed on Monday.

A total of 24 candidates had filed their nomination papers for the Surat LS seat in Gujarat. Subsequently, the nomination papers of the Congress candidate Nilesh Kumbhani as well as his substitute were rejected over discrepancies in the signatures of their proposers.

Also, the nominations of 10 others were also rejected as they were not found in order. Besides, eight nominations were withdrawn before the deadline, that resulted in Mukesh Dalal of the BJP, the lone candidate to remain in the fray. Subsequently, Dalal was declared elected unopposed, thus creating a record of sorts in the LS poll history.

Reacting to the opening of the account, Gujarat BJP President C.R. Patil said Surat has offered the first lotus to PM Narendra Modi.

The 7-Phase LS polls will conclude on Jun.1 and the counting of votes of all the 542 other LS seats across the country will be taken up on June 4.

Congress accuses BJP, JD(S) leaders of trying to stall guarantees

Mandya, Apr. 23- Accusing the Opposition BJP and JD(S) leaders of attempting to stall the Congress party's five pre-poll guarantees, AICC General Secretary and Karnataka Party In-charge Randeep Singh Surjewala charged that the Opposition leaders cannot bear the popular schemes of the Congress.

Addressing a press meet here on Sunday, Surjewala said that former Chief Ministers B.S. Yediyurappa and H.D. Kumaraswamy, State BJP Chief B.Y. Vijayendra and other leaders have been continuously targeting the five guarantees. Wanting to know the contribution of these leaders to the people when they were in power, he alleged that the Opposition cannot digest the fact that the Congress has given so many schemes for the poor and the needy.

Reiterating that the BJP and JD(S) leaders were plotting to stop the guarantees, he called upon the beneficiaries and the poor to be wary of these plots.

Urging the electorate to reject the NDA candidates, he called upon the people to vote for Congress in the better interests of the poor.

Surjewala also released a separate manifesto for the development of each of the eight Assembly segments of Mandya Lok Sabha Constituency — Mandya, K.R. Pet, K.R. Nagar, Malavalli, Nagamangala, Srirangapatna, Melukote and Maddur.

Mandya District In-charge Minister N. Cheluvarayaswamy, KPCC Working President Tanveer Sait, Rajya Sabha MP G.C. Chandrashekar, MLAs P.M. Narendraswamy and Ravikumar Ganiga, MLC Dinesh Gooligowda, District Congress President C.D. Gangadhar, M.S. Chidambar and others were present at the press meet.

Srirangapatna, Apr. 23 (VK&DM)- Mandya NDA candidate and former Chief Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy (HDK) said that the Cauvery water sharing row between Karnataka and Tamil Nadu will be resolved and the Mekedatu Project across River Cauvery along Karnataka-Tamil Nadu border will be executed during the lifetime of JD(S) Supremo and former Prime Minister H.D. Deve Gowda.

Addressing a massive BJP-JD(S) coalition poll rally at the taluk stadium in Srirangapatna on Sunday, Kumaraswamy said perhaps Lord Ranganathaswamy must have brought him to Mandya to address the burning issues bothering the district. "I will not come here again to seek votes from you if the issues are not resolved when I am elected," he said.

Noting that this election is all about the country's security, growth, leadership, economic reforms etc., he stressed on the need for re-electing Modi as the PM in the better interests of the country.

Accusing the Congress, which was in power at the Centre for decades of not addressing irrigation issues of the State, he said that though all the MPs from the State were from the Congress till 1977, they did not bother to address the water issues and also failed in executing irrigation projects and bringing funds.

Kumaraswamy appealed the electorate to cast their votes in his favour for guaranteed and speedy development of the district and addressing water issues.

B.C. Sathyanarayana, a resident of Baburayanakoppalu donated Rs. 25,000 to HDK's poll campaign. He had also donated the same amount to HDK during the JD(S) party's Pancharatna Yatra ahead of last year's Assembly polls. It was interesting to note that Reetu, the 13-year old daughter of Nishkala-Suresh couple of Kadathanalu village, donated her small savings to HDK.

BJP expels senior rebel leader Eshwarappa

Eshwarappa

Bengaluru, Apr. 23- Days after he rebelled against the party over the denial of BJP ticket for his son and filed his nomination from the prestigious Shivamogga LS seat as an independent candidate, senior BJP leader and former Deputy Chief Minister K.S. Eshwarappa has been expelled from the party for six years.

BJP State Disciplinary Committee President Lingaraj Patil in his expulsion order, said "Eshwarappa had grossly violated the Party's discipline by contesting and causing severe embarrassment to the party by doing so".

The BJP top brass decision to not give the party ticket from Haveri-Gadag LS seat to his son K.E. Kantesh had riled Eshwarappa and since then he began targeting party leaders. Eshwarappa also chose to contest the Shivamogga seat as an independent candidate by ignoring the Party's calls not to contest. As Eshwarappa has remained in the fray, the BJP has expelled him from the party for six years on charges of indiscipline, rebelling against the party and contesting the LS polls.

Meanwhile, Eshwarappa, who is upset with former Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa (BSY) and his son Vijayendra, who is the State BJP Chief, reacted to his expulsion, targeting veteran BJP leader BSY and his son Vijayendra.

Alleging that the father-son duo had lied all along, Eshwarappa said that he is contesting the polls in order to teach a lesson to the duo who had betrayed him.

Asserting that he would win from Shivamogga, Eshwarappa maintained that 60 percent of the BJP workers in Shivamogga were with him.

"I had said from the beginning that my fight is not against the BJP, but is against the running of the party by a single family in the State. If elected, I will support Modi for the third term", he pointed out adding that he was happy with his poll symbol (Farmer) that he has got from the Election Commission.

The free camp includes BP, GRBS (sugar levels), ECG, weight check and consultation with the doctor. Interested may register by calling Mob: 99450-46256 or 99162-07551 in advance and avail the facility.

WORD OF THE DAY

Meticulous

Pronunciation: muh-TIK-yuh-lus.
Meaning: Something or someone described as meticulous shows extreme or excessive care in the consideration or treatment of details.
Origin: We're afraid we have some strange etymological news: meticulous comes from the Latin word for "fearful"—metīculōsus—and ultimately from the Latin noun metus, meaning "fear." Although meticulous currently has no "fearful" meanings, it was originally used as a synonym of "frightened" and "timid." This sense had fallen into disuse by 1700, and in the 1800s meticulous acquired a new meaning of "overly and timidly careful" (possibly due to the influence of the French word méticuleux). This meaning in turn led to the current one of "painstakingly careful," with no connotations of fear at all. The newest use was controversial for a time, but it is now by far the most common meaning; even the most meticulous (or persnickety, depending on your view) among us consider it perfectly acceptable.
Example: "In a press release, the company touts its meticulous approach to the sandwich's creation — testing pickles with eight variations of thickness and more than 10 bun recipes with six different bakeries." — Alicia Kelso, Forbes, 7 Jan. 2021

THE ODD WORD

Macrotous

Big-eared.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Make a splash

Meaning: The expression "Make a splash" is used to talk about a person or event that makes a sudden, major impact and attracts a great deal of attention or becomes very well-known.
Origin: The origin of the phrase "Make a splash" isn't known for certain, however, the term has been in popular since about the middle of the 20th century. It is commonly used in the UK and America.
Example: ''Barack Obama made quite a splash when he first ran for President!''

QUOTE BOX

In fact, the room was so quiet you might have heard a drop of paint splash.

— Jasper Forde
